▶ If you do not pay your insurance premium, you may face disadvantages such as visa extension, restrictions on insurance benefits, and delinquent payment penalties.

Ⅷ. Notices

- Application is only available through the website (www.uwayapply.com).

- All required documents must be submitted via post or in-person by the document submission deadline.
  - ▶ If the required documents are not submitted before document submission deadline, the applicant will be disqualified and the application fee will not be refunded.
  - ▶ If it is discovered, even after admission, through academic background verification or other procedures that an applicant did not meet the admission requirements, the admission will be canceled and the student will be dismissed. If admission is canceled or the student is dismissed due to submission of false academic credentials, the admission fee and tuition will not be refunded, and the applicant may be subject to civil and criminal liability for document forgery or false academic information.

- Visa matters for foreign nationals are handled by the immigration authorities. Applicants must confirm with the Immigration Office whether they are eligible to obtain, change, or extend their visa before applying. If the applicant is unable to obtain, change, or extend D-2-2 status, admission will be automatically canceled and the application fee will not be refunded. (Excluding F/H visa holders.)

- If an applicant is found to be unqualified through the review of the documents, the interview process will be rejected immediately, so please check your eligibility in advance before applying

- If the application number is given after payment of the application fee, the application is successfully completed.

- The admission unit selected in the application cannot be changed. Applicants must carefully review all entered information before paying the application fee.

- The submitted documents will NOT be returned to the applicants regardless of admission results.

- Required documents must, in principle, be submitted as originals. Only when an original document cannot be reissued under the system of the issuing country, such as a document issued only once, may the applicant bring both the original and a copy to Hansung University for verification and submit the verified copy. Documents written in languages other than Korean or English must also be translated into Korean or English and notarized, as applicable.

- If different names are used among the submitted documents, proper documents issued by the legal authorities in the applicant's home country must also be submitted to prove all the names refer to the same person, the applicant.

- After completing the online application, applicants must print their test ID slip and bring it together with an identification document (passport or Alien Registration Card) on the interview day. Applicants who fail to bring the required documents will not be permitted to attend the interview, and no re-interview or additional interview will be provided.

- Document screening results and the interview schedule and location will be individually notified to applicants by email 3–4 days before the interview. Applicants are responsible for any disadvantages caused by failure to check their email or by entering an incorrect email address. Applicants must therefore provide an email address that they actively use.

- Admission results will be announced on the University website (https://www.hansung.ac.kr/sites/cis). Applicants must check their admission results themselves. Additional notice may be sent by email; however, applicants must check the official announcement on the University website regardless of whether they receive a separate notification.

- After the admission results are announced, admitted applicants will receive instructions regarding registration, visa application, and related procedures at the email address provided in the application. Applicants must carefully review the instructions and pay tuition within the designated period. Failure to pay tuition by the deadline will result in cancellation of admission. Applicants are responsible for any disadvantages caused by failure to check their email or by entering an incorrect email address. payment is not complete within the registration period, the admission acceptance will be canceled automatically.
  - ▶ The admission instructions will include the tuition payment period and method, visa application procedures, and other necessary information after admission.

- Please fill in the online application form very carefully. Applicants are responsible for any outcomes that may arise form submitting incorrect information.

- If it is discovered that an admitted student's previous academic records, whether from domestic or international institutions, or any information provided in their submitted documents is false, or if they gained admission through any fraudulent means, their admission or acceptance can be revoked, even if the fault lies with the staff responsible for the admissions process.

- Details not listed in this admission guide are subject to our university admission procedures and regulations. If inquiries of such details, please contact us.

- Students are not permitted to take leave of absence for the first year of admission unless stated in the school rules.

- All matters related to the admission process must be checked directly by the applicant through the Hansung University website (http://enter.hansung.ac.kr) and the applicant's email.

- Please be aware that, according to the university's academic regulations, students who do not have a TOPIK level 3 or higher may be subject to extended semesters.

- Hansung University operates a major track system.

  ※ All international freshmen are required to choose one of the seven department-type majors offered within the College of Global Talent at the time of admission.
  ※ Students wishing to pursue an additional major may select a second track.
  ※ For transfer admission to the 2nd year, students admitted through the track system must select two majors. The first track must be chosen within the academic unit applied for at the time of admission.
  ※ For transfer admission to the 3rd or 4th year, or when admitted to a department-type unit, students may pursue an intensive major.
  ※ Details related to majors are subject to change. Students must check the academic regulations after admission.
  ※ If the minimum number of students required for the opening of a major is not met, the major may not be offered.
